

I'm all for it – AI and religion combined. After all, both AI and religion are man made and are of this World, so it makes sense that they are partnered going into the future:

The Tech World is now firmly baked in and the advancement of it is the realisation of elite dreams.

AI, VR, AR, call it what you like; but understand it's the greatest distraction away from natural evolution and the evolution of one's soul. Tech is taking us down a 'soulless' road and we follow because we've lost our connection with authentic self.

The idea that a robot can teach us to be 'our best selves' is laughable, yet I'm sure robots will teach the masses to function better in this Tech World and that's another thing the elite will be happy about. They think - let's realise our dream and get all aspects of society working in unison with it...

The orange one is apparently bringing out a new social media platform, called TruthSocial, so he can be heard (by his admirers) having a go at big tech. Best of luck with that Mr. Trump.

Let's be clear about one thing – your evolution, your Spiritual journey, your Soul completion, indeed, your future; has nothing to do with big personalities, religion, tech or trying to wake people up to the few crazed psychopaths who are running this World. You are here to rise above all of that.

Society has doomed you. It has convinced you that you're going to die! So what have you got to lose by exploring another option?

Can you rejuvenate yourself? Can you become radiantly healthy? Can you eventually leave this World and take your body with you? You will probably say no and say that's not possible and of course you're correct if that's how you think. But what have you got to lose by trying to heal as much of your Soul as you can in the time you've got left? There's no loss in pursuing the ultimate in freedom – ascension & time-travel.

For those of you who haven't read my books or the 16 other free pdf's here, I'm going to give you a checklist, which you can 'check yourself' against as you pursue your own evolution:

1. Treat other people with kindness, respect and courtesy at all times.
2. Treat all people the same (because they are), including your family.
3. Do not languor in memories (the past) as the goal is to live in the now.
4. Do not slide off into fantasy land as living in your mind is not living real and now.
5. Do not masturbate as you can't do that without fantasising (dressing up memories is also fantasy). Also, you need to move beyond the redemptive loop of that addiction.
6. Stop judging other people, because all of your judgments drain your power.
7. Live your truth, which means that you always act in accordance with your truth and not in accordance with what's swimming around in your mind at the time.
8. Purge all ulterior motives as they also drain your energy.
9. No more lies.
10. No more trying to control others. Retire your need for them to agree with you.
11. No more playing victim. You're never a victim when you take responsibility for your life.
12. No more projecting yourself as an image (your body), because you are not that.
13. No more emotional dribble; it's time to master that.
14. Retire your need to persuade or influence anyone. Don't try to impose your will upon others.

You've got nothing to lose by taking your mind to these points but everything to gain ~ Gary Bate.
