

All the lonely people by Gary Bate

I have a frustration and I am dismayed (I like that word) that it doesn't cease. Of course I'm going to spill the beans, because that's the only thing I can do. I hope that people will take note and do something about it, but I know they won't because they prefer their illusionary lives.

Therein is the reason, as sad as it is, for the seemingly never-ending entrapment upon this planet.

This World seems so real because 'real' to us is what we engage with our senses. But we're only sensing about 1% of what we're immersed in. The real real is what's going on behind the curtain.

I'm going to give you a simple truth because I know that you're ENTITLED to know it; yet I also know that 99% of you will ignore me. It is the quintessential problem upon this planet, which nobody (other than me) talks about. I guess that makes me a freak, but I'm happy that I'm spilling the beans; even though I know it will have zero impact.

Part of my emotional detachment from people involves me telling them the truth. Here goes...

We celebrate our birthdays. What are we really doing when we do that? We're celebrating the annual date of when we were sent back here by the so-called 'Lords (angels) in the Light'. Not all angels are pleasant to the eye. In our ignorance, this is what we are celebrating.

We are fodder for them. We are their nourishment. We can sustain ourselves because we came back here. They can't because they never descended and they are too cowardly to do so. The only way they can sustain themselves and survive, is by robbing our energy and this is what they do in the Light when they rob our memories. They have virtual feasts upon our highly charged emotional energy going on all of the time.

If you die, you go to the Light and you see a hologram of your life. What's missing from this is what you've captured in your Soul. Once this is over, the angels (aliens) pull away with all of your memories and you are sent back here. I say 'sent back' because don't you always do what you're told to do by those who have placed themselves in authority?

Lifetime after lifetime of recycled ignorance and it looks like I'm the only one with the balls to talk about it. But hey, what does it matter eh? 99.9999% of people are going to ignore this and continue to celebrate birthdays. I write for the 00.0001%.

For those of you who cannot avoid death, there is a way to free yourself from this 'Light Trap' and the quickest way to learn about that is to watch the 2 minute video on my home page. I have never been so certain about the content of this video...

You can only move beyond 'social' consciousness if you pull yourself away from it.

For those of you who want the highest evolution and the greatest freedom, you must understand the reason Shiva sits upon the tiger. It's symbolic for mastery over your body. Your body is currently in the driver's seat and you're the passenger – you need to reverse that. Ascension is mastery over your body and I have written 7 books all about that.

Now you know my frustration and why I am so dismayed... Over and out ~ Gary Bate.
