

Do you believe or do you know? By Gary Bate

If you can't see this then please ask yourself why? This is the same woman who was involved in the maiden coup in 2014... <https://www.rt.com/news/571622-crimea-us-nuland-ukraine/>

If you want to see it just download the TOR browser. With the USA encouraging Zelenski to attack crimea, what's Putin going to do?

People keep telling me how bad Putin is but they know nothing about McCain's and Nuland's involvement in 2014. Why? Because their news channels don't want them to know the truth...

The ordinary, normal people in the West, get their information from the mainstream sources, all of which feed off of just 3 controlled sources. Distraction is mind-control and it's pervasive.

In 2022 the trade between the USA and China was circa 690 billion dollars. I'm going to spell it out because I obviously need to – that means their respective leaders are not enemies, they are friends; yet their propaganda will say otherwise. Why? To justify the military spend for their bosses.

It's quite a leap, but one has to ask, is Biden, Jinping and Putin working together? If so, why? War is just great business for the richest families. Not only does it allow them to re-build in their own image, it kills plenty in the process. But there's another reason – distraction away from their main work and their real enemy (you and I).

They have much planned for us. More virus pandemics and lockdowns. 15 minute cities. Cyber attacks. Crippling inflation. Universal basic income. Digital currency that you can't accumulate, to name a few. They are now ramping things up big time, because the masses are starting to wake up!

The day will come when water becomes more valuable than gold and that day is now close. Please, if you've got a family, now is the time to secure a water and food supply for them. We must help each other and stick together.

The road we're on takes us to their New World Order, but their NWO is not for our benefit; it is for their benefit. It is to control every aspect of our lives (those of us who survive the next few years). We have to be brave and we have to start now. We have to say NO and they will ignore us. The only thing we can do, for the love of self and our families; it to secure supplies of food and water.

You are to realise that you're a god, born of God, the source of all life. As such, you are not subordinate to any other gods; yet others will always try to control you because that is where they're at in their evolution. They do not realise that when they try to take your power, they leak their own.

Therein is a lesson for everyone of us. All aspects of control exercised over others leaks personal power (energy). When we do this, we may win some battles but we never evolve. A. I. Is not evolutionary; it's a backward step. The natural is by far superior to the artificial.

People need to wake up to the truth and the truth is – we have been lied to by all of the religions and all of the governments. They plan to have a third of this Earth that's off limits to 'Humans' but of course that won't include them! They are super-rich, crazed, selfish, psychopaths, who don't hesitate to kill anyone of us (their minions included). They want a World with as few as a half billion caged servants and that's the garden path they're taking us all down...

The good news is – people are now waking up in the droves. The question is – are you one of them?
