

It's not like how they've caused you to think and believe it is. There's the illusionary World you are emotionally invested in and there's the World of how it really is. Let me give you an example from today's news:

Here's the puppet news article of distraction <https://www.bbc.co.uk/weather/features/66177220>

Here's the true picture <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zm261O9BRB0>

Your government are not the top dogs. Your religions are mind-control instruments. Science has been bought and paid for. Left and right, red and blue; all work for the alien controlled elite dogs...

They're trashing the planet and trying to kill as many of us as they can. But taking us down through the air we breathe and the water we drink and the food we eat; is a slow-kill and not quick enough for them. What's the quickest killer? NO CLEAN WATER.

The after-life has been hijacked and turned into a recycling factory of sorts. Come on, did you really believe Jesus or his mother or one of his helpers is going to look after you when you fall off your perch? Nah, it's really like this Captain Janeway clip, except the aliens are grotesque looking:

Get to understand every morsel of this and forward to your loved ones:

Turning your back on the Light is essential for your future. If you want to lose your memory and return here as a baby, then you go to the Light when it beckons you. But if you want to retain your memory and never let another mother wipe your arse; then you turn your back on the Light and head for the very faint light in the distance. You have a great future if you make the right choice.

You will carry-forward (in your Soul) your so-called 'unfinished business'; but this can be worked through in a higher-conscious parallel World. This amounts to all of your addictions, which you have yet to master. Addictions are anything you struggle to give up and I have covered these in my other free articles and my books...

Christ consciousness belongs to any non-addicted person. Please don't under-estimate what I'm saying here. The greatest addiction of all is to emotions and upon this planet most people are emotionally invested in their own illusions – created by their belief in the deliberate mind-control.

You should be very happy that you've got you and that you've always got you and your ability (like Captain Janeway) to think for yourself. That's what's now needed for the days that are coming...

We are all the same, because we're made from the same stuff and we're all addicted (otherwise we wouldn't be here). So please let's have compassion for each other as we're all in the same boat.

My interest is to suitably arm (prepare) the people I care about, including my grown-up siblings; but in a greater sense, you're all my brothers and sisters and that's why I make my writings 'public'.

This is a World all about CONTROL and in this lower level it works because of our ADDICTION. I am happy that I have experienced it, but I don't intend to return and become their cyborg. Will you join me in a parallel World where mind-control isn't practised and genius thrives? ~ Gary Bate.
