

What happens if you have a planet where the veils of ignorance get dropped and everyone gradually comes into the truth and starts to live it? You have the second coming of Christ consciousness...

Not everyone can make it to the top in the secular power pyramid because the top seats are occupied by super-rich families, such as the Windsors, the Rothchilds and the Rockefellers. But everyone can rise up in the consciousness pyramid, just by opening themselves up to the truth. There are those of us who love truth and there are those who suppress truth for their own gains, albeit temporary...

In a nutshell I've just given you the battle that's occurring on this planet. Truth gets mocked by key terms such as conspiracy theory and antisemitic and propaganda gets embedded by controlling the mainstream media channels. Control suppresses truth and love allows truth. Indeed, love is built upon truth – you cannot have the one without the other.

The tyrannical few are still in control, but that's only because the masses are still languishing in a victim consciousness. Whilst people are still willing to fight each other, the ugliness of wars will continue. Imagine killing women and children because you wear a uniform and because of that you think it's not only ok but righteous! How far away is that from Christ consciousness? A long way...

I have always advocated that 'conscious' people should focus on themselves and their own evolution and I've done that because nobody can speed up somebody else's growth. We can only solve our own lives. Let me give you a simple example from my own experience. I used to be a gout sufferer and I thought it was the copious amounts of red wine I drink! But no, I was wrong. I am still consuming red wine every day and I have now been gout free for a long time – what changed in me? I stopped trying to control other people.

Now if I was able to give that to all the gout sufferers in the World; what percentage do you think would adopt my truth? 99% will still argue that it's this, that or the other. And this is the problem with truth – it can be staring you in the face and you will still argue for your limitations!

Tyranny can only triumph on this planet whilst the inhabitants comply with it. They want to control our money and stop our ability to accumulate it (hence the CBDC). They are controlling our weather and thus our food supply. And of course they want to exert stricter controls on our movement and completely confine some of us. They fear us because they are few and we are many – so they have to corral us to achieve total control.

The real war then is control versus love and which one wins remains to be seen. It will, as always, be determined by the people. If the masses comply then control wins. If the masses say no and stand up for themselves, then love wins. It's a high stakes game because how it plays out ricochets into the power structure that exists in the Light. If we bring love here, the Light realm and the Infrared realm collapses...

So let's get specific. The Jews aren't the problem and neither are the Palestinians. The problem is the Zionists who control both sides. The Ukrainians aren't the problem and neither are the Russians. The problem is the Zionists... Now you know why Putin and Netanyahu and Biden are friends... These wars are merely distracting us away from the control mechanisms they are pushing through.

What are you going to do when they want to inject you again? What are you going to do when you can't cross a border or access your own money until you allow them to inject you with whatsoever they want? Well hopefully, for the first time in your life, you might actually think about your Soul and give them the finger. Their CBDC are only a cat's whisker away and we all need to reject this imposition on our freedom and argue for government-issued, gold-backed currencies ~ Gary Bate.
