

Understanding is a blessed thing by Gary Bate

Understanding is a blessed thing and without it there won't be any sense of urgency and the correct action will never be taken.

Some people, indeed, many people, don't believe Humanity has a common enemy and this is coming from their limited perspectives, due to their lack of understanding concerning the dire situation we are all in.

There are very good reasons why our planet is the way it is and knowing those reasons opens us up to ways that we can make this World a better place for everyone. Without this knowledge I am about to share with you, the World will stay as it is and continue to worsen in living standards. Ironically, it takes just a simple shift in one's perspective, away from a wholly personal viewpoint to a more objective viewpoint, which considers everyone.

Earth has never been great and neither has America or Britain. The reason for this is the prevailing consciousness that exists here. Let's take a step back to go forward...

Human is a form – a form with a consciousness. All species are forms with consciousness. Alien is just what we don't understand. Some 'forms' have a higher consciousness than us and others have the same or similar consciousness to us – there is no lower than us.

We experience small-time tyranny in our own lives by way of relationship dramas etc. and it's an emotional rollercoaster when that happens, because the 2 things are associated (control & emotions) and we have become chemically addicted to both. However, we're basically good people and we have the capacity to love, because we have a conscience. The kind of tyranny that currently controls our World is far more extreme and it has NO CONSCIENCE. This is why all kinds of heinous crimes against humanity are being committed daily. But there's hope...

When a Human discards their form (dies), they are immediately caught up in their Light body form, which is the same consciousness in a slightly higher frequency, where the extremes of this consciousness are more obvious! The psychic realm is like a negative film of the Light realm, where mind parasites do their work on behalf of the so-called 'Lords of the Light', who are grotesque creatures. Hang in there...

The Matrix is real and it's dimensional – it comprises this physical World, the Light body World and the Psychic World, which is the jam in the sandwich. We 'below' are controlled by them 'above' and just like us, they need to sustain themselves. We eat food for energy and they feast on our emotional energy - the more fear the better the feast. The deception goes very deep – we have been lied to about the Light.

Everything came out of the Darkness (the void) so how can the Darkness be bad or evil?

The Demons are in the Light and they're working this place via their agents here, for their fodder. I kid you not. Why do you think Sunak gave Zelensky 2.5B of our taxes? It's not to help Ukraine; it's to kill its men, women and children. All wars are for that primary purpose. Sunak and Zelensky are both Death Cult agents who report to their master agents for the Demons in the Light. This is bizarre I know, but it's also true!

Earth is a feeding ground currently. It exists (currently) to evoke emotion in us for the virtual feasts.

It's time to wake up and grow up people – you're being played and used. All those war veterans and those breast plate badges – for what? They all went to war on a false premise.

The Demons have us by the you know what! They feed off us throughout our illusionary, emotional lives then when we die they strip us of all our memories - that's their desert (memories are also energy). They wipe us out and leave us vacant and send us back here for more emotional adventures (fodder). You've been born many times and now you know why you don't remember any of it...

If someone gets too 'bright', what do they do? They try to push them back into their emotional body.

Do you want to argue this? Come on, give it your best shot. What better explanation do you offer? It's not about the WEF or any other organisation, although they are part of this deception; it's much bigger than that and it's been going on for a very long time. Now to the HOPE...

We can choose to stay governed by an extreme tyrannical consciousness that has no conscience or we can join Freedom Train International and gravitate to a higher consciousness, known as Love. If we want the latter then we have to collectively say NO to the former. Like agent Smith said, “ One of these lives has a future”. We all have to make the stand; not just a few of us.

We must STOP fighting each other. America and Britain are not at war with Yemen or Palestine on behalf of Israel. No, it's just the actions of the Death Cult operatives. In Britain, the likes of Sunak, Starmer and Cameron are taking the piss big time.

We all now know who the villians are in this picture. The question is why are they still standing? It's because the masses prefer to slumber and pretend everything is hunky dory or they haven't realised yet that they won't achieve anything lawfully and peaceably. Let me re-state:

The nefarious few at the helm have NO CONSCIENCE and they are executing (excuse the pun) a depopulation agenda, which means they are KILLING us. To get rid of their menace, I believe we will have to venture into to realms of 'going against THEIR laws'. Their laws protect them!

Don't worry about the detail of when the tyrants have gone; we have enough smart, good people to work things out. The farmers will grow organic food. The fluoride will be gone from the water supplies. The filth they've been raining down on us will be finished. The veil of ignorance lifted. Our children will be safe. Love will flourish. Truth will reign. <https://www.terracharter.com/>

We have much hope and much to look forward to; but firstly we all need to change our attitudes to ourselves and towards each other. We have to stand up for truth and speak up for decency. Every abused child is our child and we are responsible for that. Our legacy is how we treat our young ones and we all need to stop doing what these hybrid deceivers tell us to do. They can stick their 'rule of law' in a place that doesn't see daylight. ~ Gary Bate of whatstress dot com.
